

Walk in the footsteps of some of golf's legends - even use the same clubs they did.

You can!!! You can play the oldest resort golf course in the United States, designed by the greatest guru of course design, Donald Ross. You'll tee it up a couple of times using an old hickory shafted golf club (provided), wear your knickers (optional) and walk in the footsteps of golf greats like Harry Vardon, Bobby Jones, Walter Hagen, etc. You'll even get called to the tee with real bagpipe music. You get the idea. It's a great occasion, and it happens only one day every year at Poland Spring Resort in Poland Spring, Maine. Come live golf history with a grin on your face all day long.

Help preserve Maine's great golf heritage

That's what the Fenn-Ross Cup Heritage Scramble is all about -- reliving a grand old age if even only for a day with a purpose of helping to preserve that history which is regarded with such awe and wonder, and have a wonderful time doing it.

Will your name be on the Fenn-Ross Cup for future generations to admire?

The country's greatest golfers used to travel to Poland Spring each summer to challenge each other for the Arthur H. Fenn Memorial Poland Spring Championship Cup which is on display in our Maine State Building museum. We've replaced that cup with the Fenn-Ross Cup, named for the two golfing greats responsible for The Poland Spring Links; Arthur Fenn and Donald Ross. That cup which resides in a permanent club house display is engraved annually with the names of the winners of this great tournament. Winning teams' names, both gross and net, will be put on this trophy and become a page in the history book that is the Poland Spring Links to be seen and admired by golf generations to come. Will your name become part of Maine's golf history?
